Description

This one-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment is under construction and scheduled for completion in 2026. The 82 square-meter interior is fully furnished and finished to a modern standard. The bedroom and both bathrooms provide the core living spaces, with the layout flowing from an entry area into the main living zones.

The apartment sits in the town center of Cyprus, with immediate access to a highway. The location places the property within the urban core, surrounded by the amenities and infrastructure of a developed town center.
