Description

This 641 square-meter building plot in Oroklini offers an excellent foundation for a custom home or investment property. The generous size accommodates flexible design possibilities, while the country views provide appealing outlooks from a future residence. Highway access and proximity to local amenities ensure convenient connectivity without sacrificing the peaceful rural character of the setting. Next to this plot, we have more available.

Oroklini is a residential village adjoining Larnaca, Cyprus's second-largest city. The area offers a blend of everyday services—shops, restaurants, and medical facilities—alongside the quieter pace of village life. The coast lies a short distance to the south, and the Larnaca area provides broader urban services and employment.
