Description

This modern house sits on the seafront in Tersefanou, offering views across the water and toward the city. Built in 2026 and finished throughout, the property spans 98 square metres with three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and an elevator connecting the levels.

The main living areas open onto the sea-facing side of the house. All three bedrooms are furnished and ready for immediate use, with full bathroom facilities on the property. An elevator provides access between floors.

A communal swimming pool serves the development. Tersefanou adjoins the coast, with the highway nearby for onward travel and local amenities within reach.
