Description

Built in 2010, this two-bedroom house in Melini provides 90 m2 of internal living space.

The layout arranges the primary living areas alongside two bedrooms and one bathroom across a single level.

Direct roadway connections link the address to the main highway network.

Melini is an inland village in the Larnaca district, situated in the foothills of the Troodos mountains. The village adjoins Ora. Detached houses and low-rise residences define the built environment. The setting opens onto the surrounding mountain range.
