Description

This 2-storey 90 m² apartment in Pyla occupies the first and second floor of a three-story residential building completed in 2008.

The unfurnished interior is configured with an open living area, two bedrooms, and one full bathroom.

Outdoor shared amenities include a communal swimming pool within the development grounds.

Pyla lies northeast of Larnaca, situated inland from Larnaca Bay. The village provides essential services including grocery stores, pharmacies, and casual dining spots. Low-rise apartment complexes and detached houses characterize the surrounding area.
