Description

Offering generous proportions and ground-floor convenience, this inviting 101 m² maisonette presents an exceptional opportunity in peaceful Oroklini. Built in 2012, the residence delivers a comfortable, well-designed layout that makes it an ideal choice for professionals, couples, or small families.

Inside, a bright living and dining area creates a welcoming environment for relaxing and entertaining. Presented unfurnished, the interior provides an exciting blank canvas, allowing you to curate each space to suit your personal taste and lifestyle. The two well-proportioned bedrooms offer peaceful retreats, easily served by a neatly appointed central bathroom.

Situated in a sought-after residential setting, everyday living is effortless with local shops, bakeries, and neighborhood amenities just moments away. Commuters will also value the immediate connection to the nearby highway, ensuring fast, stress-free transit across the region and toward the coast.
