Description

Spacious and exceptionally well-proportioned, this 120 m2 rental apartment offers comfortable everyday living in the convenient Fire Station area of Cyprus. Positioned in a building with elevator access, the residence is offered for rent at 1,200 EUR per month, making it an appealing option for tenants seeking space and effortless connectivity.

Inside, the home is partially furnished, allowing you to settle in quickly while leaving ample room to add your own personal style. Generously sized living spaces are filled with natural light, accompanied by two full bathrooms that enhance everyday comfort and practicality for residents and guests alike.

Positioned in an accessible neighborhood, the property places you within easy reach of nearby everyday amenities for all your routine shopping needs. Commuters will particularly value the direct proximity to the highway, enabling smooth and swift travel across the region.
