Description

Offering an inviting blend of comfort and practicality, this maisonette built in 2008 provides 110 m2 of internal living space in the charming community of Liopetri. It represents an exceptional opportunity to settle into a well-established home that balances generous proportions with a relaxed Mediterranean lifestyle.

The residence unfolds with a bright, welcoming living and dining environment crafted for comfortable everyday gatherings and entertaining. Accommodation comprises three well-sized bedrooms and three bathrooms, offering an ideal layout that prioritizes privacy and convenience for the entire household. Presented unfurnished, the interior serves as an appealing blank canvas, inviting you to curate each space to suit your personal taste and design preferences.

The property enjoys a desirable setting close to everyday village amenities, ensuring shops and local services are always within easy reach. Proximity to the highway network further enhances connectivity, allowing for seamless travel to neighboring coastal towns and surrounding districts.

Discover the potential of this versatile home by arranging a private viewing with Marinos Kineyirou Estate Agents today.
